FIRST EARTH BANK UNIT BUILT AT BELTON DAM

Work was completed Monday on the first portion of the earthen embankment on the Belton dam and reservoir project. Hunter Construction Co. of Oklahoma did the work under a $196,000 contract. Dirt moving was completed Saturday and blading and rolling were completed Monday.

This portion of the embarkment is 1,600 feet long at the base, 68 feet high at the highest point and about 350 feet wide at the widest point of the base.

Work on this phase of the dam project was started on July 25 with the setting up of company offices in the health unit building, Belton. Heavy equipment was moved on location August 17, and dirt work started August 21.

Dirt has been moved from the borrow area about a quarter mile upstream from the dam site.

Removal of heavy equipment will probably begin Wednesday, according to W. T. Milam, vice president of Hunter Construction Co., who had been in charge of the work here. It will be carried to a U. S. Army Engineer job in Oklahoma where the company has a $924,000 construction contract.

An approximately two million dollar contract for construction of the outlet works will be awarded soon, Mr. Cirkal said. Low bidder was announced when bids were opened in district offices at Galveston on Feb. 16 as Winston Brothers, Inc., of Aausa, Los Angeles.

Work is progressing on improvement and construction of a road from Belton to the location of the observation point near the U. S. Army Engineers' headquarters which will overlook the work area .

HOME BUILDING IN PROGRESS HERE

The City of Cameron was mounting it's average of building progress for 1950 according to building permits totals compiled here by W. H. Stafford, City Secretary, for this newspaper.

The total for January and February is $30,770.00. Permit totals for January were $15,020.00 and for February were $15,750.00.

Mr. Stafford said these permits were for new homes with a small portion going for repairs. At the present rate the cities building total for 1950 would be around $200,000. Since the end of the war the city has recorded around three quarter to one million dollars in new construction. These values should be helpfully reflected in the tax rolls of the city for the permit law was designed to keep an accurate guage on expanding taxable values.

Burglars Hit Three Schools In Central Texas

Burglars hit three times in Central Texas Monday night and early Tuesday morning and made off with $400 from the Rogers high school vault, $60 from the Buckholts high school and $2 from a soft drink machine at Milano high school.

Sheriffs E. T. Ray and Carl Black, of Milam county, both said last night that no arrest had been made but that clues picked up at the school were being followed.

Entrance at Rogers was made by breaking a glass window, prying open a door to Supt. P. H. Bowen's office and entering the concrete vault by knocking off the knob and forcing the door. The burglary was discovered by the janitor, Robert Seaton, when he opened the school at 6:45 a. m. Tuesday.

Money taken was class funds, lunchroom receipts, March of Dimes donations and basketball receipts.

At Buckholts the burglars entered by removing the screen from a window. The $60 was taken from Supt. Mrs. Coy Arledge's desk drawer after the drawer had been forced. Some $30 was senior class funds, the rest lunchroom money.

Entrance at Milano was gained by forcing a door.

Sheriff Black said he believed the three robberies were the work of the same man or men.

Assisting Milam and Bell county sheriff's departments were Texas Ranger Trenton Horton, James Shaw and Worth Seaman of the department of public safety, and Constable Lace Crow at Rogers.

PEE WEE TEAMS GET PRE-GAME APPROVAL

Approval for the plan of playing Pee Wee football games as preliminaries to college games has been given by the athletic departments of two Southwestern Conference colleges and discussions are going forward to institute "small fry" games as a way of giving impetus to the development of junior football and other pre-high school sports, it was learned this week at the offices of The Milk Bowl, Inc., Gause.

The plan was suggested in letters directed to the athletic directors, last week, with the thought that the Milk Bowl organizaion, which also holds an annual Bowl game at Cameron, could act as volunteer liason officials between Pee Wee teams and all colleges in Texas desiring the little fellows for preliminaries.

A Pee Wee team, is small in size only with participants usually weighing in the neighborhood of 100 pounds and not over 14 years in age. The boys play the traditional game with skill and are properly uniformed to give colorful play and the usual player protection.

UNION ACCEPTS TRUMAN BID FOR 60- DAY TRUCE

The nationwide telephone strike scheduled for Friday was postponed for 60 days.

The CIO Communications Workers of America agreed to a 60-day truce proposal made by President Truman, who said a walkout would deal a severe blow to the public welfare.

Joseph A. Beirne, union president, issued a statement that the union's executive board had agreed to delay the strike call.

He asked that there be no interruption of work and that the nation's telephone communications remain unbroken during two months' of bargaining with the help of Federal mediators.

American Telephone and Telegraph Co. wired the President late Wednesday it would be glad to continue bargaining for another 60 days "in a sincere effort to settle the dispute."

In wires to 25 officers of the Communication Workers of America and 19 officials of Bell System companies Mr. Truman said a walkout would cause "great damage to the public interest and welfare."

Management and workers in public utilities, he said, "have a special and extraordinary responsibility" to settle their disputes without strike or lockout.

The union is demanding a "package" concession amounting to 15 cents an hour—including higher wages, shorter hours and shorter training periods.

Pfc. Francis A. Esslinger is receiving amphibious training at the Naval Amphibious Base, Little Creek, Va., in preparation for operation portrex, joint air-sea-ground maneuver to be held in the Caribbean in late February and early March.

The question of American arms aid for France in her war with the Indo-Chinese communists is expected to come to a head as soon as Dr. Philip Jessup arrives home from what has become a world tour.

A French defense ministry spokesman says more arms are needed.

Although France will be able to free some equipment for Indo-China with arrival of Atlantic pact arms from the United States, the war against Ho Chin Minh is expected to become a special order of business.

Dr. Jessup, President Truman's roving ambassador, has been studying the whole Far Eastern situation. Indo-China was a prime consideration at the Bangkok conference of American diplomats over which he presided. The need for specific measures will come to the fore when he arrives in Paris soon.

FREAK WATER ACCIDENT DAMAGES CITY BUILDING

A freak accident early yesterday caused thousands of dollars worth of damages to the Professional building in Temple and an unestimated amount of damage to furniture ,equipment and records of tenants in the build-

A two-inch hot water pipe burst between the roof and the sixth floor offices of Dr. Burbank Woodson and flooded the entire building. Every floor of the building above the street level was covered with water when office workers reported to work yesterday morning.

Building superintendent Cecil Massey and Buster Brown, real estate dealer, said the time the pipe broke was unknown, but from the amount of water it must have been just after midnight.

Mr. Brown said a complete estimate of damage could not be determined until contractors inspected the building; that can't be done until the plaster dries from the deluge of water.

Dr. Woodson's private office suffered the most damage as the furniing.

ture, rug and a number of medical books were said ruined by the hot water. Some equipment in the office was also reported damaged.

Marek's drug, on the ground floor of the building, also was reported taking a heavy loss. Mr. Marek estimated his damages at between $4,000 and $5,000 but said it was just a "wild guess."

He said he had a $700 shipment of drugs which had not been unpacked and some of his fixtures would have to be replaced.

The offices of R. O. Culp and company, United Benefit company, Dr. L. I. Malinak and a number of other offices suffered damage to furniture.

The elevator shaft was filled with about five geet of water and the cages were not used during the day.

Workers arriving on the scene yesterday morning formed a broom brigade and swept the water from each floor down the steps and into the streets.

There was no insurance to cover the loss by water damages under these circumstances, Mr. Brown said.

Israel Appeals To U. S.; Britain For Supplies

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26—The government of Israel has appealed to the United States and Britain for arms and military equipment to bolster its army and air force, diplomatic officials disclosed today.

The Israelian ambassadors here and in London were said to have presented detailed requests to the state department and the British foreign office.

Top state department officials reported drafting a formal American reply to the Israeli bid after consultation with the British on the ticklish problem.

Officials indicated to a reporter that before sending any American arms to Israel, the state department would ask for a full accounting of the equipment Israeli armed forces now have, plus assurances that they would be used only for self defense.

Until now, Israeli officials have declined to give the United States or Britain any detailed information about the size or equipment of its armed forces. Most of the present Israeli army and air force supplies were purchased in Czechoslovakia and other countries during the Arab-Jewish war in Palestine.

The Israeli request apparently is aimed at offsetting the shipment of British arms to the Arab countries in the Middle East.

ACHESON ASKS ASIATIC NATIONS TO STOP REDS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23—Secretary of State Dean Acheson called today on Southeastern Asiatic nations in the path of the communist advance to link forces in an economical and social union.

Urging a "spontaneous" move toward an Asiatic bloc, he indicated the United States might back such a development with some form of oriental Marshall plan or President Truman's "point four" program.

Acheson told the senate foreign relations committee this country, in the meantime, is considering new economic aid to Indo-China, Thailand and Indonesia—critical areas in the "cold war" front in Asia.

He said a special economic mission will be sent next week to Indo-China, scene of civil war between the French-sponsored Bao Dai regime and the Soviet-backed forces of Ho Chi-Minh. The department has been studying Bao Dai's appeal for American aid to defeat his communist rival.

Acheson also said the state department is discussing new aid for Thailand, and may give additional financial help to Indonesia which recently was granted a $100,000,000 export-import bank loan.

Acheson warned at the start against rushing into an anti-communist Marshall plan for Asia until the Asiatics themselves ask for help.

ANOTHER ELECTION SEEN INEVITABLE

LONDON, Feb. 24—Britain's voters have returned the socialist Labor party to power but without a big enough majority to control the House of Commons.

The result, which showed Labor and Conservatives almost neck-and-neck, means that another election is almost inevitable in the near future.

The dramatic count of the ballots showed Prime Minister Clement Attlee's Laborites won 314 seats in the 625 seat House of Commons; Winston Churchill's Conservatives 294 the Liberals eight and the Irish Nationalists two.

A neutral speaker was also returned leaving six districts still to report. Even if the Conservatives sweep them all it can not change the result.

Labor did not win a clear majority of the popular vote. They got 13,178,787 out of a record-breaking 27,983,185 ballots cast. The Conservatives got 11,236,413, the Liberals 2,596,058 the communists 91,746.

GM ORDERS CUT IN WAGES, VEHICLE PRICES

DETROIT, Mich., Feb. 24—General Motors cut car and truck prices and reduced its workers cost of living allowances Friday.

As on two previous occasions during the last twelve months, vehicle prices are cut from $10 to as much as $40 and cost of living allowances 2c an hour.

For some 290,000 hourly rated workers the action means they will receive 3c instead of 5c an hour allowance for the next three months. Approximately 72,000 salaried workers will receive a $15 cost of living allowance for the three months commencing March 1. This is a $10 reduction from the $25 they received during the three months ended Feb. 28.

The wage adjustments are made under the unique contract General Motors made with the CIO United Auto Workers early in 1948. Among other things it provided for a cost of living allowance to be adjusted quarterly in line with the increase or decrease in the consumer price index of the United States Bureau of Labor statistics.

A UAW-CIO statement soon after the GM announcement described the cost of living allowance cut as "morally indefensible." It said the union had asked GM to waive the reduction, and added:

"It is fortunate that GM workers will soon have the opportunity to recover this wage reduction and win pensions as well as a substantial wage increase when contract negotiations between the UAW and General Motors open next April."

The car price reductions are $10 on all Chevrolet vehicles, $15 on Pontiac, $15 and $20 on Oldsmobile, $15 to $22 on Buick and $25 to $40 on Cadillac cars. GMC trucks will be cut $10 to $25.

LOCAL FARMERS CAN MAKE EXTRA MONEY

Great interest has been shown by potential producers of milk since the announcement that a milk route will begin in Cameron and Milam County on March 1. Sam White, Chamber of Commerce Dairy Committeeman, reports that production in Falls County will begin on the same date as in Milam County.

This milk program will supplement the agricultural income at the time that decreased acreage in cotton and peanuts will be in effect. At the same time it will aid in the movement for conservation practicies. Soil building crops can be used as temporary grazing and then turned under to increase soil fertility after sufficient growth.

To start production, one is required only to have a clean place to milk, concrete floor not necessary, and very inexpensive milking utensils; milk pads (changeable), non grease soap or washing powder, milk pail and wire brush.

It will be necessary to concentrate the milk at one central pick-up station until the production routes are designated. At that time a route will be worked out to pick up the milk at the most convenient points and where production justifies. Cameron Seed and Insecticide will be the concentration point until routes are established and anyone desiring further information may contact Walter Lester or Sam White.

Mrs. Ed Morgan of Gause has returned home after being ill and in Newton Memorial Hospital.

Rudolph Marek and Sam Hohenstein spent several days in Houston on business.

Homemaking Department Making Progress

In the Homemaking department, the HM IIa girls have had a general housecleaning. Some washing off the cabinets in the kitchen while others were cleaning the venetian blinds in the living room, and some more industrious future homemakers cleaned the windows in the main homemaking department.

While all of this was going on, the girls that had brought their material for their sewing were busy at that. Johnnie Glass is making a cute gathered skirt out of orchid pink (corded) with gray stripe chambray. It is to have a large pocket on the right side. All-in-all the skirt will cost her about $1.88, a nice saving.

Susie Dell Matthews is making a gray skirt with a pick stripe throughout. It is to be a gathered skirt with a large pocket on the right side trimmed with rick rack. Barbara Ann's mother got the material for her in Marlin for 89c a yard. She bought two spools of thread and a zipper, and will profit by making her own skirt.

All the girls are looking forward to the annual style show given to them by Mrs. Donovan from the Specialty Shop which is to be held soon, and in which the girls themselves will participate.

number "SW034505" was discerned on an engine. This was found to correspond with the serial number on one of the engines of Air craft No. 43-38511 thereby establishing the identity of the plane and its crew.

The American Graves Registration Service recovered these deceased from the above cemetery in August 1947; four have been individually identified as members of your son's crew. The remains now identified as a group representing Roger and three of his comrades were recovered as a mass burial. As no identifying media were present, unknown designations were assigned pending further investigation, and interments were made in the United States Military Cemetery Neuville-en-Condroz, Belgium.

Lt. Newton entered service in the spring of 1943 from Texas A. & M. College and received his basic training at Camp Roberts in California. He transferred to the Air Corps in the fall of that year and trained at Brownwood, Texas, later specializing in Navigation at Barksdale Field, Louisiana. He received his commission as Lieutenant in December 1944 and was then assigned to a crew for training at Plant Park, Florida for two months.

The crew of the B-17 Bomber lifted their plane one day and took off for a base in north Africa and from there they flew to Foggia, Italy, their permanent base. On April 25, 1945 the crew was hit by anti-aircraft fire. The ship exploded at an altitude of 28000 feet and plunged to earth near the little town of Dumbach, Austria.

Surviving Lt. Newton are his father, Lesser Newton and his mother, Mrs. Lois Newton of Rogers and one sister, Mrs. Leslie Carter of Temple. Among his other survivors is an aunt, Mrs. Louella Elam, postmistress at Milano.

BODY OF WAR HERO—

Newton and two sisters: Mrs. J. A. Baggett of Milano and Mrs. L. G. Butts of Thorndale will leave early Wednesday morning for St. Louis to attend the funeral services for Lt. Newton.

In connection with the discovery and identification of members of the crew of the bomber the following letter was reecived from Lt. Col. W. E. Campbell;

Your letter of September 5, 1949 addressed to Colonel Freeman pertaining to the recovery and identification of the remains of your son, the late Second Lieutenant Roger T. Newton, has been referred to me for reply.

According to Army records and investigation, your son's plane, a B-17 type aircraft, Army Air Force serial number 43-38511 crashed at 1402 hours on 25 April 1945 in the woods between Dumbach and Waldhausen, Austria, while returning from a bombing mission to Linz, also in Austria. Eight of the crew were killed in the crash.

During the investigation which was conducted by personnel of the American Graves Registration Service, it was ascertained that the German Volkssturm had promptly visited the scene of the crash and buried the deceased near the wreckage; all personal effects and identification tags were removed by them. These remains were later removed by local civilians to the communal cemetery in Dumbach. The crash site was then searched by our investigators; the

FEPC MEASURE PASSED; RACIAL POWERS OUT

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23—In a bitter defeat of the administration, the house today passed a substitute FEPC bill stripped of the legal barriers against racial discrimination in employment that President Truman has demanded.

The vote was not even close: 240 to 177. Some of the sponsors of the original administration measure voted against the substitute, although in doing so they had to get in the same column of the roll call as the Southern Democrats who superintended the wrecking of the original bill.

Delegations from Texas, Arkansas, Louisiana and Mississippi voted solidly against the legislation.

FEPC, the intitials which have taken on almost a mystic significance to negroes and some other minority groups ,stands for fair employment practices commission. The bill the house passed and sent to the senate would establish such a commission, but that is about all.

When the watered-down FEPC bill came up for a tentative vote early this morning the maneuvering saw Texas congressmen cast their votes solidly for the measure. Only Wright Patman, Albert Thomas, and Speaker Sam Rayburn were not listed as voting for the bill. Patman and Thomas may have been paired. The speaker didn't vote unless there is a tie.

But when the house reached a final vote on the bill at mid-day Texas congressmen voted solidly against it. Every Texas house member except the speaker was listed as opposing the bill.

Valley Patrolmen Hunt For Wetbacks

By land and by air the border patrol today hunted "wetbacks" as it stepped up its drive to clear the lower Rio Grande valley of illegally-entered Mexicans.

A roadblock set up around McAllen netted about 500 "wetbacks" as green clad patrolmen stopped every truck on every road and searched it for aliens.

Busses pulled up alongside carrot fields as patrolmen rounded up all workers but citizens and contract Mexican braceros.

A similar roadblock at Weslaco netted more than 1,000 deportees. There the patrolmen ran out of busses and trucks to haul the "wetbacks" to border immigration offices.

George F. Klemcke, assistant in charge of the McAllen patrol office, said the patrol's Sinson plane had been "very effective" in helping patrolmen spot field crews containing possible 'wetbacks."

Garrison Says Racketeers Try To Enter State

Homer Garrison, director of Texas Public Safety, said that outside crime syndicates are trying to move into Texas.

But their efforts, he added, are being checked by efforts of law enforcement officers.

The state police chief would not elaborate on his reasons for saying the syndicates are making bids to enter this state.

"The syndicates are naturally striking for the larger cities," Garrison said. "They have no foothold yet."

Gamblers, he declared, undoubtedly are behind the syndicates' movements.

"I have always believed that gambling is the crux of crime when it is on a large scale. Gambling can and does finance everything that's criminal — narcotics, prostitution and other vice activities."

Asked to comment on a story in the Denver Post, in which a writer said Dallas crime is a "hell-broth . . . likely to erupt at any time," Garrison remarked:

"Dallas is no worse than any other places of comparable size. A city as large as Dallas naturally will be a target for racketeers."

PIONEER RESIDENT BURIED HERE FRIDAY

Mrs. J. E. Holtzclaw, 92, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Judd Davis, at 5:00 p. m. Thursday, February 23, 1950.

Le Claire Haddox Holtzclaw was born April 25, 1857 at Spartonburg, South Carolina and came to Texas at the age of 10 years. She had been a resident of Milam County since that time, and was married July 7, 1880 to John Edwin Holtzclaw. To this union two children were born; Elmer Edwin Holtzclaw and Lerlene Holtzclaw.

Mrs. Holtzclaw joined the Presbyterian church at the age of 17.

She was the widow of the late J. E. Holtzclaw, famous Frontier Marshal who died at his home in Cameron in 1942.

Mr. Holtzclaw was an early day Marshal in Belton and later was City Marshal in Rockdale, from which office he was elected Sheriff of Milam County. He became City Marshal in Cameron where he served for a long period of time and later was elected Constable, thus rounding out more than a quarter century as a peace officer in the turbulent, colorful days marking the close of the last century and the beginning of the new era.

Mrs. Holtzclaw's survivors include one daughter, Mrs. Judd Davis of Cameron; three sisters, Mrs. J. T. Yeargan and Mrs. Anna Flynn both of Dallas, and Mrs. Elizabeth Branson of Cleburne; four brothers, H. N. Maddox of Cameron, Frank Maddox of Waco, Dick Maddox of Taylor and Willie Maddox of San Antonio. She is also survived by three grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

The remains will be conveyed to the First Presbyterian Church at one o'clock today to rest until the funeral hour at 3:00 p. m. when Rev. W. R. Hall, pastor will officiate.

Burial will be made in the Sharp cemetery, with Marek-Burns Funeral Home making the arrangements.

Pallbearers were: Jim Neinast, Harry Davis, Jim Coward, Lee McLane, W. W. Markham and Valter White.

Texas Power & Light; REA Reach Agreement

An interchange agreement between the Brazos River Transmission Electric Cooperative, Inc., and the Texas Power & Light Company for the purchase and sale of electric power was approved by Claude R. Wickard, REA administrator in Washington Tuesday.

"This is the kind of agreement which I strongly advocate between public utilities and REA bodies," said Congressman W. R. (Bob) Poage of Waco whose efforts are largely responsible for the organization of the Brazos River Transmission Eelectric Cooperative, Inc. "It is both a purchase and a sale agreement by which both parties are mutually benefitted. It provides for connections between the transmission lines of each, thus making it possible for them to help each other during times of emergency," Congressman Poage said.

"Under terms of the agreement the Transmission Cooperative will sell to TP&L Company a portion of the electric power generated at the Morris Sheppard Dam which the Cooperative purchases under long term agreement from the Brazos River Conservation and Reclamation District. In turn, TP&L will sell to the Transmission Cooperative power and energy at existing points of delivery to its member distribution cooperatives. Also, the TP&L Company will supply power and energy for serving member distribution cooperatives at future load centers. The Transmission Cooperative also is interconnected with the Lower Colorado River Authority and the Cooperative will soon complete its generating station between Temple and Belton which will likewise have an interconnection with the Texas Power & Light Company," he explained.

TP&L Company also will deliver for the account of the Southwestern Power Administration a maximum of 10,000 kilowatts of power and certain energy to the Transmission Cooperative for its member distribution cooperatives in accordance with the provisions of the SPA-TP&L existing contract, Mr. Poage said.

The new contract between Brazos River Transmission Electric Cooperative, Inc., and Texas Power & Light Company takes the place of the wartime contract of January 11, 1943, which expired when hostilities were declared at an end. Since that time, the TP&L and Brazos River Transmission Eelectric Cooperative have extended the agreement by mutual consent on a day-to-day basis.

A variation on the pork-apple combination will be welcomed by economical cooks who serve this inexpensive meat frequently. For Pork Patties mix together 1½ lbs. lean pork, 1 cup evaporated milk, ¾ cup rolled oats, ¾ tsp. powdered sage, 2 tsps. salt, ¼ tsp. pepper. Put into greased cups, bake in slow gas oven (325°F.) 45 mins. or until brown. Meanwhile, remove cores from 2 medium-sized apples. Cut each crosswise into three rings. Dip both sides of sliced apples into 3 tbsps. sugar. Brown in ¼ cup shortening. Remove pork from cups and top each piece with apple rings. Fill center of apple slices with jelly. We suggest 6 tsps. sharp jelly. Serves 6.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

"Man" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, March 5.

The Golden Text is: "Know ye that the Lord he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture" (Psalms 100:3).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright; for the end of that man is peace" (Psalm 37:37).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "God is the creator of man, and, the divine Principle of man remaining perfect, the divine idea or reflection, man, remains perfect" (page 470).

Says Bulgarians Surprised At U. S. Break

MILAN, Italy, Feb. 26—U. S. minister Donald R. Heath said today the Bulgarian government was "surprised and undoubtedly disappointed" at the state department's abrupt severance of diplomatic relations with the Soviet satellite.

"No, no trouble," Heath told reporters when they asked if the Bulgarians had made any effort to hamper his departure.

"I think they were rather happy to see me leave, but I have good reasons to believe that the Bulgarian government was surprised and undoubtedly disappointed at the U. S. decision to break diplomatic relations with Bulgaria."

The U. S. decision came after Bulgaria described Heath as persona non grata and refused to withdraw that statement, and after the communist regime attempted to implicate Heath in the espionage trial of Traicho Kostov.

Just before he left Sofia Heath said he was tipped that the New York Times' local correspondent had been arrested by political police.

"We were too much in a hurry and could not check the report, but the man who gave it was considered rather reliable," the U. S. minister said.

Heath said Switzerland will look after U. S. interests in Bulgaria.

U. S. STANDS READY TO USE BIG STICK

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22 — President Truman took the occasion of Washington's Birthday to deliver a stinging denunciation of communism as an armed threat and "a modern tyranny far worse than that of any ancient empire." If force is necessary, he said, then we stand ready to use force to combat the "deadly attack" of those who would destroy freedom.

Describing his message as a "straight from the shoulder" talk on United States foreign policy, Truman left no doubt that his remarks were aimed directly at Soviet Russia and her satellites.

"The great danger of Communism does not lie in its false promises," he said. "It lies in the fact that it is an instrument of an armed imperialism which seeks to extend its influence by force."

Under gray drizzling skies, the president spoke at ceremonies marking the unveiling of a 17-foot statue to the nation's first president at the George Washington National Masonic Memorial in near-by Alexandria, Va.

Covering a wide range of topics in his 2,200-word address, Truman made these major points:

1. "We in the United States are doing and will continue to do all that lies within our power to prevent the horror of another war."

2. "We are working for the reduction of armaments and the control of weapons of mass destruction."

3. But the United States will not accept any "sham agreement" that does not include a "workable international system" for control of atomic weapons.

Truman said George Washington knew "there were times when the use of force to defend democracy could not be avoided," and he declared.

"This (Communist) threat of force is a challenge to all people who are free or wish to be free. The fundamental issue is whether men are to be free to choose their own way of life, or whether they must live under a system imposed upon them by force.

"Freedom can not grow and expand unless it is protected against the armed imperialism of those who would destroy it."

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Owens and children Linda and David Lee of Belton visited Mrs. E. Willie Sunday.

Mrs. Ada Pratt is spending several weeks visiting he rson Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Pratt in Floydada.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Blake and sons and Miss Dorothy Merchant spent the past week end visiting relatives in Houston.

Marlin Wins In Close Game, 48-45

With six-foot, six-inch center Gary Shivers unstoppable, Marlin staved off a hard-fighting Cameron quintet Tuesday night for a 48-45 triumph.

Shivers' 24 points, plus Francis Meades' 70 for Marlin, was too much of an obstacle for the plucky Yoemen. Alton Fuchs notched 19 points for Cameron and Frank Malone 12.

Marlin got the jump in the first quarter with a comfortable 21-4 lead, and still waxed hot in the second period to hold a 32-18 margin.

The tide turned in the third quarter as Cameron drew up to a 42-31 deficit, then poured on the fight in the last go-round. With only about two minutes left, the Yoemen breathed hard on Marlin's neck on the short end of a 45-44 count, but tree-top tall Shivers' field goal and a free throw secured the victory while all Cameron could add was a free toss.

In the curtain raiser the Marlin B's made it a clean sweep for the visitors over the Cameron B's, 23-17.

FEDERAL CLAIM HARBORS, PORTS REVEALED; DANIEL

AUSTIN, Feb. 22—Attorney General Price Daniel said Wednesday the federal government is laying claim to Texas ports and harbors as well as the tidelands.

He reported that a copy of the government's brief in the tidelands case makes a definite claim to the ports and harbors.

Daniel said the claim, if actually pressed by the solicitor general like the tidelands claim, would cloud the title to properties of far greater value than the tidelands.

He said billions of dollars of tax money and private money have been spent on port and harbor improvements at Galveston, Corpus Christi, Brownsville, Beaumont, Port Arthur, Houston, and other coastal cities.

The Texas attorney general declared it came as "a complete surprise" to him that Solicitor General Philip B. Perlman claims the ports of Texas as well as the marginal belt.

Although not included within the description of the present suit, Daniel said Perlman's brief says:

"The joint resolution under which Texas was admitted to the Union required the state to cede all its ports and harbors to the United States.

"Except for the express cession of ports and harbors by Texas, they would probably remain as the property of the state."

The federal brief admits Texas kept all its "vacant and unappropriated lands" upon annexation but denies that this included tidelands, ports and harbors, Daniel said.

The tidelands suit brought against the state by the federal government is set for hearing before the Supreme Court of the United States the week of March 13.

Mrs. Charlie Barrett of Corpus Christi is at the bedside of her father, Charlie Griffin who is seriously ill at his home in Milano.

Ozark Man Seeks $1 Million to Build 'Noah's Ark' Cave

The owner of a 26-mile long cave deep in the foothills of the Missouri Ozarks today asked the Reconstruction Finance Corporation for a $1,000,000 loan to develop an underground "Noah's ark" safe from A-bomb and H-bomb attacks.

Lester Dill, Stanton, Mo., said he wanted to equip his Meramec Caverns —once a hiedeout for Jesse James— as a bomb hide-out for the several thousand people 'whose survival would be essential to future civilization."

He suggested that the persons picked to hide away in his cave be scientists such as Einstein, medical experts, chemists, engineers, and other specalists and promising young people who would insure a future generation.

Dill conferred with his lawyers Wednesday and sent formal application papers for the million-dollar loan to the RFC in Washington.

"When the situation is so serious that our own Government officials are urging an alternate capital for Washington and are seeking hidden spots for military and industrial installations and for irreplaceable persons," Dill said, "we should also be preparing to protect the scientific, engineering, medical educational and creative genius which has made our nation great."

Dill said his cave could be developed into a self-sufficient city with storage space for a two to three-year food supply for thousands of persons.
